Aides to Ramsey

by Monica Blackwell

Ramsey has 13 aides who have many duties.

Some do typing, filing, making reports, and assisting teachers. Some patrol the halls. Some work in the English and math departments.

The aides who work in the workroom run off over 5000 papers a day.

Ladell Norman is the Coordinator for the aides. Other aides are Dorothy Arkell, Jacqueline Pearl Dobbins, Bernadine Kilby, Doris Madison, Vida Pedersen, Essie Pipkins, Marilyn Robinson, Dorothy Rusthoven and Joan Wineman.

Ramsey Reports: Olympics

Reporter Dan Gorbunow asked students around Ramsey this question: "Do you think we should boycott the Summer Olympics in Moscow?" Here are answers from various students:

DEAN JOHNSON: No. The athletes trained and worked hard and put money into it. The athletes want to go through with it anyway.

KEVIN KELLEY: Yes. We should have all the Olympics here in America.

TOIS SMITH: No. There are too many people that have their heart set on going to the Summer Olympics.

TONY DODGE: Yes. I think they should be moved to a neutral country.

JUSTIN SHROYER: No. Because we should go and bring home all the gold medals.

AARON HILL: Yes. So the American athletes will be safe when and if they go to the games.

BLAISE THOMAS: No. Too many of the athletes spent a lot of money training and it would be a lot of wasted money.

MICHELLE SOMMERS: Yes. If they do go there they could be in danger.

JASON LAKE: No. Carter has not got the right to decide if the Olympic team boycotts or stays at Moscow.

TRENTON ROSBY: Yes. Because Russia's no good!

LEE STEPHENS: Yes. We shouldn't go into Russia for the Summer Olympics because the Russians might hold the athletes hostage.

TOM LOWMAN: Yes. Our athletes could get into danger at Moscow. The Russians could hold our athletes hostage.

MR. KAPSNER: No. We should go over there, but keep our flag home and let the Russians think there's something wrong.

In the poll, six out of fourteen said "no" and seven out of fourteen said "yes". Each side gave good reasons, but there's one view only one out of fourteen took:

ERIC OLSON: I think we should leave it up to the athletes if they want to go or not.

Ramsey Puzzlers

In each issue, the "Ramsey Report" will have a puzzle. Each month there will be a different puzzle, and each month there will be a $3.00 prize for the winner.

The following are the general rules:

1. Each person is allowed one entry.
2. The entry must be placed in the box in Room 111 within two days after the paper is delivered.
3. An impartial group will judge the results.
4. If more than one winner is found, a drawing will be held to determine the one winner.
5. Each person's name must be on the entry and it must be clearly readable.

PUZZLE FOR THE FEBRUARY

ISSUE

From the word REVOLUTIONARY make as many English words as you can.

1. The words must be of three letters or longer.
2. Proper names (Mary, Jack, Minnesota) etc. cannot be used.
3. The spelling of the words must be correct.
4. In each word, a letter of the alphabet can be used only as often as it is found in the key word. For instance, "revolutionary" has only one E so any word you use can use only one E. But your next word can of course use an E again.

DIMISHING

As I sit here today,
 watching the animals play,
 I wonder why we destroyed
 so many,
 When there used to be a lot
 and plenty.
 How could we be so cruel?
 We have acted like fools.
 The animal kingdom will soon fade.
 because of all the mistakes
 man has made.

POEMS BY
Angela Zimmerman

POLLUTION

All this pollution, fog and smoke,
 the animals will surely choke!
 Can't you stop your pollution?
 There has to be some solution.
 I am tired of fish being washed ashore,
 Because they can hardly live
 in the sea anymore.
 When this pollution finally ends,
 there will be no more animals,
 my friend!

CREATIVITY CORNER

ISN'T IT A WONDER?

by Bretta Hoecherl

Isn't it a wonder
 the way the woods know that Spring is coming before the snow is gone?

Isn't it a wonder
 That way under the sea
 There are beautiful strange gardens
 Where the "flowers" are animals
 And sea lilies and sea
 cucumbers
 And sea grapes - are all animals.

Isn't it a wonder -
 That on the dry desert
 some plants have thick
 stems -
 In which they store water?
 No leaves at all, lots of prickly spines
 To keep thirsty animals
 from eating them up?

Isn't it a wonder
 The way Nature works?

This is part of a poem
 by Bretta Hoecherl.
